

Student Statement of Well-Founded Fears

Per Board of Governors Emergency Order 2024-E0-01, undergraduate students who are seeking to escape a reasonable fear of antisemitic or other religious discrimination, harassment, intimidation or violence at their current institutions are eligible to transfer to the University of South Florida from an out of state, degree-granting, accredited institution within the United States.

Steps to Apply:

1. Submit a transfer application to the University of South Florida.
2. After application submission, please complete this form with a brief statement below describing the reasonable fear of antisemitic or other religious discrimination, harassment, intimidation or violence that you have experienced or fear experiencing at your current institution.

Please fill out the information below.

Student First Name

Student Middle Name

Student Last Name

Date of Birth (MM/DD/YYYY)

University ID Number (UID)

Phone Number

Email

Please provide a brief statement below describing the reasonable fear of antisemitic or other religious discrimination, harassment, intimidation or violence that you have experienced or fear experiencing at your current institution.

Signature

Date (MM/DD/YYYY)

Please submit the completed form to transfer@usf.edu